

IBMA SONGWRITER SHOWCASE

TUESDAY, SEPT. 29

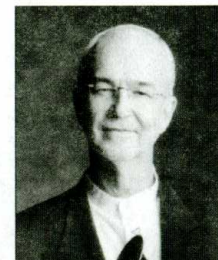

NCC 209 / 210, 4-6:30 P.M.

Our hosts: Alecia Nugent & Carl Jackson

Songs are the heart of any musical genre. In addition to the tried and true standards that will always be the basic repertoire of our music, a steady supply of new material is crucial for the growth and development of bluegrass music.

The IBMA Songwriter Showcase returns to this year's Business Conference, with the goal of focusing attention on 10 selected songwriters and their new bluegrass material.

Each featured songwriter will do two original bluegrass songs of their choice, including the one they submitted for consideration. Our hosts will also grace us with one of their own original compositions. If you are an artist or producer looking for new material for upcoming recordings, the IBMA Songwriter Showcase is a "can't miss" event during World of Bluegrass week.
